Superintendent's Message

Unfortunately, there seems to be an inclination in many people to think up reasons why they may not succeed. One of these excuses may be, "My grades in school prove that I was not born a genius, and my teachers or parents have listed me as hopeless." ---Edison the Inventor, Wordsworth the poet, Darwin the naturalist, Curie the co-discoverer of radium--were labeled dullards in school.

Someone has said--

"He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much; who has gained the trust of pure women and the love of little children. Who has filled his niche in life and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a beautiful poem, or rescued a soul. Who has looked for the best in others, and given the best he had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory is a benediction. This constitutes success."

Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of Kennedale High School in the year of nineteen hundred and fifty-two, being of sound and sane minds, taking all interest in our co-operative effort to do nothing, do hereby make and establish this, our last will and testament.

I, Richard Ward, will nothing to nobody because I need all I have to get by.

I, Robert Foster, will my abiĭity to stay ahead of the class to Gene Jenkins, Terry Earp, and Art Carter.

I, Clarence Henry, will my ability to play football and my way with the girls to Kenneth Pearce.

I, Harvey Carlin, will my ability to talk back to the teachers to Donald Miller and Walter Davis.

I, Wanda Green, will my ability to pop my gum to Billie Tatum and Gwen McRay.

I, Bonnie Fenoglio, will my place to have the biggest mouth in the tenth grade to Pete Kirkpatrick.

I, Eunice Ewing, with a tear, will my love for Wayland Yates to Melba Archer, Martha Floyd, Ann Fields, and Dorothy Gillaspia. May the best one win.

I, Claudette White, will my position as Editor of the KENNEDALE KAT to Joan Ford, Jerry Hubbard, and Claude Bedford.

I, Nelda Tidwell, will my position as basketball captain and president of the G.A.C. to Janie Hubbard and Alice Burdette.

I, Mary Morris, will my ways of getting out of class and my position as vice president of the class to Richard Burdette, Daniel Atchison, George Roberts and Lonnie Wyatt.

I, Joy Rodgers, will my ability to be "altar bound" to Phyllis Pearce.

Besides these gifts, we leave all our candy and bubble gum wrappers, not of necessity, but of our own free will—our blessing, tender memories of our associations together.

Class Prophecy

Our senior class of '52
Looked in the future to see what we would do.

The future held in store for us,
That all should meet on the bus

To return to the dear old school
Where once we broke the Golden Rule.

The first to arrive at the station
Was Mrs. Bishop, pride of the nation.

Next Robert Foster, Mrs. Bishop's pet,
Flew to the station in his jet.

The third to arrive, dressed as a nurse,
Was Bonnie Fenoglio, riding in a hearse.

Harvey Carlin, a rancher now,
Came to the station riding a cow.

Wanda Green riding a turtle,
Came into the station carrying her girdle.

Hot Shot Henry, a noted dairyman,
Came to the station carrying a milk can.

Claudette White, a piano player,
Married a man who is now our mayor.

The next to arrive was Joy Rodgers
Who married a man that plays for the Dodgers.

Mary Morris, an actress of renown,
Arrived at the station——talk of the town!!!

Nelda Tidwell very happy and gay,
Arrived at the station in her old Model A.

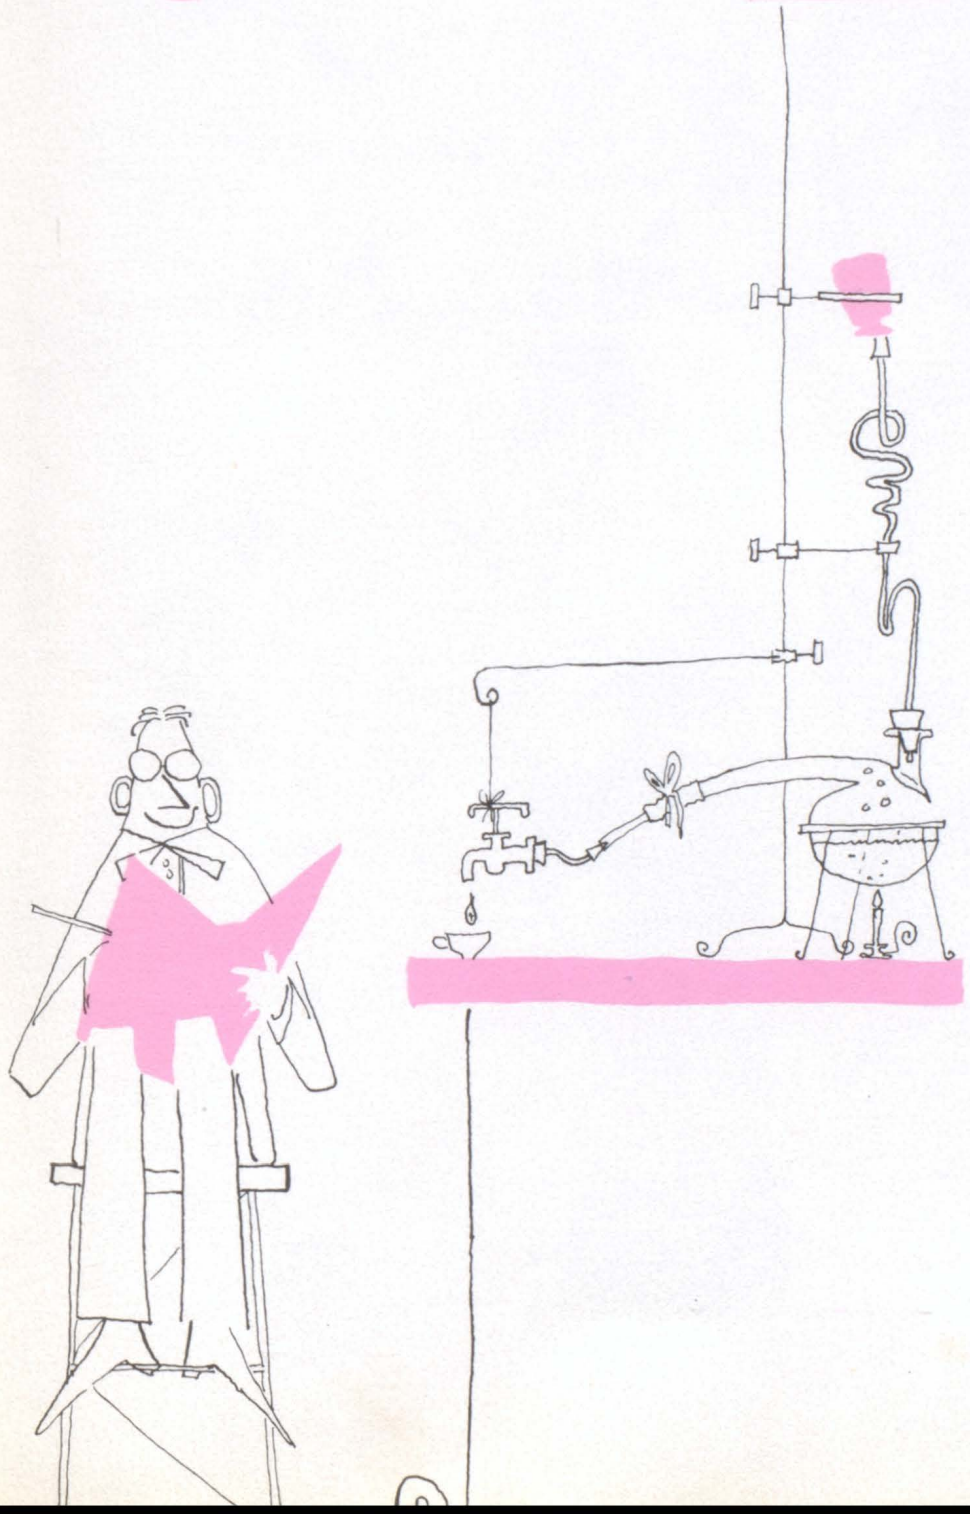

Eunice Ewing, trying this and that,
Discovered a vitamin that had made her fat.

The last to arrive, and just in time,
Was Richard Ward and his fishing line.

On the bus we started to shout,
The driver stopped and made us get out.

We got out and rode to the Kennedale School
On the back of a skinny, stubborn gray mule.
